When dancers look into the mirror they need to SEE A DANCER. IMPACT DANCE requires that dancers wear non-revealing dancewear. Bare tummies, low leotards, "boy-shorts", or tights cut too short will NOT be allowed in class. Instructors have the authority to adjust the printed dress code for their individual class. Students will be asked to add a layer for modesty if they come inappropriately dressed. No jewelry (except small earrings) is allowed in class.
